

The Wanamaker Store: Holidays and Other Days

THIS is, and will be, a wonderful Christmas store;—the stocks show it, the store itself shows it, and the daily increasing audiences show it plainest of all.

But there are other days than holidays, and work-a-day matters and every-day wants are no respecters of seasons. The blaze and the glory of Christmas goods do not blind us to the demands of the people who wish underwear. We hear and heed the voices that ask for shoes and cloth and kitchen things, even through the chatter and the laughter of the children down in Toyland.

A Christmas store, to be sure, and such a one as there has never been in New York. But, in addition, an every-day store for every-day wants, as it always is and always will be.

Let us begin now the ever-new and ever-old and, we fear, the ever-useless cry,—"Choose your Christmas things early." Come while there is ample room and ample time. Come while stocks are freshest and brightest and fullest.

If you delay, things must be done in a hurry. But, if it comes to that at the last, this is the safest store in the world in which to do things in a hurry. Hurry makes mistakes sometimes, but your mistakes in Wanamaker cannot hurt you,—your remedy is too easy.

The Saturday Unusals

Here are the usual unusals for men that you have learned to expect on Saturday. We cannot do better than repeat the matters that you found so acceptable last week. Here they are:

More of those 50c Scarfs for 25c.
More of those $1 Scarfs for 50c.
More of those $1 Madras Shirts for 50c.
More of those $1.50 Gloves for $1.
More of those $6.50 House Coats for $5.
More of the new things for men from London, Vienna and Paris, at a saving of one-third.

Dressing Gowns, House Coats, Mufflers, Golf Jackets, Bath Towels, Cardigan Jackets, Fancy Vests, Women's Squares, long Scarfs, Collars, Wraps, and all the usual, different, entirely different, from the last run.

Men's Overcoats

Given any thought to the buying of a new one? Then let us show you the sort you've fancied you'd like to have. It's here, depend on it. All the good styles are. Glance through these suggestions. You'll appreciate the value-giving when you see the coats:

At $16—In a new shade brown rough chevron; made with baggy backs; medium short cut; raw edge seams; fancy wool lined, with brown satin shoulders; very stylish and low priced.

At $30—An overcoat for the plain dresser; of very fine imported black Vicuna; cut long, silk lined; velvet collar; narrow stitich edges.

At $15—The popular fringed overcoat in black and Oxford mixed; wool lined; satin shoulders; raw edge seams; velvet collar. Blue and black Kerseys at $10, $12, $15, $18, $20, to $35.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Men's and Women's Underwear

Time to tell particularly of the heavy kinds. Just as good offerings in these as in all the other sorts, and many, many people have learned that this is a good Underwear Store in which to buy. Two items for men:

At $1.50 a garment—Shirts and drawers of heavy merino, in white or natural color; full fashioned and regular made; drawers have reinforced seats.

At $2 a garment—Winter-weight merino; white or natural color; drawers in long or short length; with reinforced and finished; pearl buttons throughout.

And these for women:

At $50 a garment—Vests and drawers of fine ribbed balbriggan; medium weight; vests with long or short sleeves; drawers in knee and ankle lengths; cuffs of both silk-trimmed.

At $1 a garment—Vests and drawers of Winter-weight merino, in white or natural color; vests with long or short sleeves; drawers in knee and ankle lengths; cuffs of both silk-trimmed.

At $1.50 each—Union suits of winter-weight ribbed merino, in white or natural color; silk finished and trimmed; buttons across chest.

Shoe Evolution

There are rapid changes in shoes these days,—not alone in styles, but in qualities also. For instance, this shoe for men at $2 a pair would have been a wonderful thing a short time since. It would not have been believed that so much goodness could be distributed for that price. They are welled shoes, which means a smooth inside and good wear. Fine satin calfskin uppers, solid leather soles, three best shapes and good looks to spare. Not so good as our $3 shoes, but quite equal to some we know.

Women's shoes at $1.50 a pair, and every one who looks at them gets an honest surprise. A ridiculous price for such a shoe, if a good thing can be ridiculous. Made of chrome-tanned kidskin, oak leather soles, welled and stitched. Not old shoes, not a "job lot." Fresh from the factory.

Fourth avenue and Ninth street.

Garments for Girls

Excellent choosing here, with the comfortable assurance that, choose what you will, you can't make serious mistakes. Styles here for little girls that are intended to make their older sisters admire and perhaps desire.

We make you choosing easy, because we have done the choosing for you. We hunt the markets over more thoroughly than you can. You'll find the pick of things here.

Fairly priced, of course:—

At $9—Reefer of tan-mixed Whipcord; new box front; box back; entire coat edged with brown velvet; turnover collar; lined with red satin; 6 to 14 years.

At $10.50—Jackets of navy blue and black chevron; fly front; round-corner front; coat collar and revers; lined with black rhadame; sizes, 14, 16 and 18 years.

At $15—Jackets of navy blue and black chevron; fly front; round-corner front; coat collar and revers; lined with black rhadame; sizes, 14, 16 and 18 years.

At $10—Greenish long cloaks; royal blue and brown beaver; with deep cape trimmed with five rows of black satin bands and gold silk cord; black leather belt; 4 to 14 years.

Children's Coats for These Days

Children's Coats of the prettiest and best, at about a third less than their last week's prices. That's a matter to hold attention.

Up to a day or two ago the lighter coat would do. Now the little form must be bundled up more snugly. These are winter coats,—warm ones; but just as pretty as children's garments can be made,—and that's saying a great deal.

About fifty styles in the lot, made from broadcloths, kerseys and beaver, variously trimmed with ribbon of braid or fur. For ages one year to four years.

Were $6 to $15
Now $4 to $10

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Hosiery for Men and Women

Just a single item for each, and they're all a quarter a pair. You may safely judge every-day offerings by these. Only good values are ever obtainable here.

At 25c pair—Men's fine cotton half hose; medium or heavy; black, tan, slate, cadet and navy blue.

At 25c pair—Women's fast black cotton stockings; medium weight; double soles and high spliced heels. Good value at 35c.

Broadway.

Idle Hour Reading

One's literary craving is as whimsical as one's appetite. Sometimes you thoroughly enjoy a dish that another time would be as ashes in the mouth. Sometimes you hunger for the simple and substantial; sometimes you must be pampered with confections.

And so with your idle-hour reading. The book must fit the mood of the moment, to be thoroughly enjoyable. Sometimes you feel like stirring and bellicose romance, sometimes that palls, and you prefer more serious matter. Sometimes it's poetry, and so it goes.

It takes a large library to satisfy the whims of an omnivorous but desultory reader, such as most men are. Have you never found your own shelves lacking in just the kind of reading you wanted then?

With the INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY at hand, you would never feel a want of this kind that could not be instantly satisfied. Here is given all the literature of all the world. Romance of the tenderest and the bloodiest; poetry of the sweetest and quietest or most passionate; history, philosophy, orations, essays, ghost stories, funny stories, love scenes, murder scenes,—anything that charmed to suit your temper. And these the best of their styles,—picked selections from the world's greatest authors.

The 20 volumes are sent on 10 days' approval. Sold on monthly payments. All particulars on request. The Book Store, Ninth street.

Elderdown Sacques and Robes

There's comfort in the very sight of these. Elegance, too. They're most attractively made, in new styles, prettily trimmed, and priced—very fairly, as these figures show. The Sacques—a garment at $1, that shows more value in material and making,—and several other styles that gradually increase in price.

Robe prices begin at $2.50. A choice of gray, pink, blue and cardinal, and made in the latest approved style at that price. Other handsome sorts up to $10.

We have 3,840 pairs of Women's two-clasp Glove. Glace Gloves that have come to be sold at 65c. a pair.

Another lot of equal amount put on sale a short time ago lasted just a day and a half. In the nearly four thousand pairs sold, only twenty-two pairs were returned for ripped stitches or other defects. That tells better than a column of talk how good a glove it is.

All the wanted shades, and white and black. They will be sold out to-night. Sixty-five cents a pair.

This is a half-price story, a big bargain with a microscopic reason.

There are four lots of women's handkerchiefs here that will be sold for less than half their regular retail prices. If you examine these with a glass, and are quick-eyed and patient, you will see why,—a stitch dropped here and there, a pin-hole in the linen, defects all but imperceptible except in results. There are four lots in this offer, and we price them 12½c, 25c, 35c, 50c.
